Summary

The Newport Beach Vineyards and winery is a hidden gem in Orange County, California. The property was discovered in 1998 and is located on 3.5 acres. The city of Anaheim was founded by the Los Angeles Wine Society, and the winery grows its own grapes and makes its own wine on site. They offer tastings of four wines, two red and two white, and also host goat brunches and bridal showers. The winery has a wine cave for barrel storage and events. TikTok star, Krista Allen, started making viral videos during the pandemic and describes TikTok as a community where people come to be human and laugh together. The winery also offers blending classes for customers to create their own custom wine blends, with options available for non-red wine drinkers. The wine cave can accommodate parties for up to 60 people and has unique features, such as doors made from reclaimed mahogany.
