Summary

The video explores three popular places to visit in Los Angeles: Gifts, Highland Park Bowl, and Musso and Franks. Gifts started as a soap store in 1971 and has since expanded to carry 15,000 different items including books, comic book related art, Mexicana and outsider art, and novelty socks. Highland Park Bowl is the oldest bowling alley in Los Angeles and was a speakeasy during prohibition. It has been modernized while maintaining the aesthetics of the past. Musso and Franks is a famous restaurant in Hollywood that opened in 1919 and has a rich history. It is known for its original grill and menu items that have remained unchanged for decades, and it offers an intimate and historic atmosphere with private dining rooms and a temperature-controlled wine room.
